I can do all things in him who strengthens me. — Philippians 4:13

Todo lo puedo en aquel que me fortalece. — Filipenses 4:13

GOD REVEALED TO THE NATIONS

What wonderful images we have today of the reign of God! Isaiah speaks to us of a great feast—a heavenly feast—a feast of abundance with rich foods and choice wines. It is the Lord's own affair, Isaiah explains, when God will unite all nations, dry every tear, and destroy death forever. Then, too, will the entire earth rejoice in the Lord and bask in God's saving grace.

Jesus speaks of heaven in terms of a feast as well. Here, the kingdom of heaven is likened to a king's wedding feast given for his son. This is a feast of abundance also, with the fattened cattle prepared just so. But many of the people invited don't want to come, so the king invites anyone who would honor his son by their presence there. And Paul tells us that whether we live abundantly or in humble circumstances, we can do all things in the Lord who strengthens us.

Comunión en la mano

El recibir el Cuerpo de Cristo en la mano no siempre nos es fácil, de hecho a veces nos causa problemas. Quizá porque consideramos que no somos dignos de recibir la divinidad de Cristo, de tener en ella a Dios mismo hecho pan. Si siguiéramos este argumento al pie de la letra habría que cuestionarse respecto a qué parte de nuestro cuerpo está limpia de pecado para con ella recibir al Señor. La respuesta es lógica. No implica ninguna falta de respeto a la divinidad de Cristo, a su cuerpo, el recibirlo en la mano. Es más bien la gratitud ante un Dios que, a pesar de que no nos queremos lo suficiente como para considerarnos dignos de tenerlo en nuestra mano, no sólo se nos da en la mano, sino que lo comulgamos. Eso habla de cómo es Dios, de lo que es él. Además, esta tradición de comunión en la mano, data desde el año 386 y san Cirilo, obispo de Jerusalén hablaba ya de ella en sus catequesis mistagógicas. El recibir la comunión en la mano, no es cuestión de indignidad o falta de respeto, es también una forma de tomar la responsabilidad propia de vivir conforme a lo que recibimos.

Christ the King Launches it's 2011-2012 Offertory Program

Do our spending habits make room for God? Do we opt to give back to God before we make those daily specialty coffee purchases or second movie rentals? When we change our spending habits even a little, foregoing small non-essentials in order to offer something more to God, we are on the road to good Christian stewardship. Besides praying & sharing our time and talent with others, Christian stewardship includes giving back to God some of our earnings through the parish offertory program. Some Catholics choose the biblical norm by giving 10% (a tithe). Some, because of circumstances, give more than that. Others might start at 2% or 3% and work upward. After prayerful thought about the size of your gift, when you do not find yourself making excuses for its size, when you know in your heart that you have been completely honest with God and yourself, then your gift is the proper size.

Today is Commitment Weekend, the weekend that every parishioner in our parish is invited to commit ourselves to be good stewards of the gifts God has entrusted to us, to share our time, our talents, and our treasures as a sign of the love and gratitude we have for Him. Please pray and consider giving more of yourself to our Lord, Jesus Christ. All of us can offer to give more to our offertory collection. To the many parishioners who have returned their offertory commitment cards today, a heartfelt thank you. Offertory commitment forms will also be available next weekend at all of the Masses.

La Iglesia de Christ the King lanza su programa de Ofertorio 2011-2012

¿Nuestros hábitos de consumo hacen cupo para Dios? ¿Escogemos darle a Dios antes de hacer nuestras compras diarias de café o rentar una segunda película? Cuando cambiamos nuestros hábitos de consumo un poco, dejando a un lado lo no esencial, estamos en camino a mayordomía Cristiana. Aparte de oración y compartiendo nuestro tiempo y talentos con los demás, la mayordomía Cristiana incluye regresar parte de nuestros ingresos a Dios por medio del programa de ofertorio. Algunos Católicos escogen la norma bíblica dando 10% (el diezmo). Unos, por circunstancias económicas dan más. Otros empiezan a 2% o 3% de su sueldo y van aumentando su donación. Después de meditar en la cantidad de su donación, cuando no haces excusa por la cantidad de tu donación, cuando sabes en tu corazón que has sido honesto contigo mismo y con Dios, entonces su donación es de la medida correcta.

Hoy es el fin de semana de compromiso, el fin de semana donde cada miembro de nuestra parroquia está invitado a comprometerse a ser buenos administradores de los dones que Dios nos ha confiado, compartir nuestro tiempo, talentos, y tesoros como una señal del amor y gratitud que tenemos por El. Favor de orar y considerar dar más de ti mismo a nuestro Señor, Jesucristo. Todos podemos dar más a nuestra colecta de ofertorio. A los parroquianos que han entregado su tarjeta de compromiso el día de hoy, nuestro sincero agradecimiento. Formas para el compromiso de ofertorio estarán disponibles el próximo fin de semana en todas las Misas.

Fighting Elder Abuse

The District Attorney's Offices of Santa Barbara, Ventura and Los Angeles Counties
each fight elder abuse. The Los Angeles County District Attorney's Elder Abuse
Section has specially trained prosecutors and victim advocates working closely with law enforcement and service providers to stop elder abuse and hold abusers accountable. The advocates also help rebuild lives and prevent further harm to elders and de-
